PHILOSOPHY

The members of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct and Commission staff take their obligations to the citizens and judges of Texas seriously. The political affiliation, gender, ethnicity, religious background, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, geographical location, or the position of a complainant or a judge are not considered in the Commission's review of cases. The Commission's ability to fulfill its constitutional mandate requires that each Commissioner and staff member act with honesty, fairness, professionalism and diligence.

The agency reviews every allegation of misconduct made against a Texas judge. Each complaint alleging misconduct on its face is thoroughly investigated and analyzed by Commission staff before being presented to the Commissioners. This process helps preserve the public's confidence in the integrity of the judicial process. Judges are held to the highest standards of ethical conduct, both on and off the bench, and the both Commission and its employees strive to conduct themselves in a similar manner.

OVERVIEW OF THE COMMISSION

Authority of the Commission

Created in 1965 by an amendment to Article V of the Texas Constitution, the State Commission on Judicial Conduct is the independent judicial branch agency responsible for investigating and addressing allegations of judicial misconduct or permanent disability.

The Commission's jurisdiction includes all sitting Texas judges, including municipal judges, justices of the peace, criminal magistrates, county judges, county court at law judges, statutory probate judges, district judges, appellate judges, masters, associate judges, referees, retired and former judges who sit by assignment, and judges pro tempore. The Commission has no jurisdiction over federal judges and magistrates, administrative hearing officers for state agencies or the State Office of Administrative Hearings, or private mediators or arbitrators. A judicial candidate, who is not already a sitting judge, is also required to comply with the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct. Effective September 1, 2022, the Texas Constitution was amended and provides that the Commission may, in its discretion, investigate and sanction a judicial candidate for an alleged violation of the canons.

Members of the Commission

There are thirteen members of the Commission, each of whom serves a staggered six-year term, as follows:

- Six judges, one from each of the following courts: appellate, district, county court at law, constitutional county, justice of the peace and municipal, appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas;
- Five citizen members who are neither attorneys nor judges, appointed by the Governor; and
- Two attorneys who are not judges, appointed by the State Bar of Texas.

By law, the appellate, district, constitutional and statutory county judges and the two attorney members who serve on the Commission must be appointed from different appellate districts in Texas. Meanwhile, the justice of the peace, municipal court judge and public members are at-large appointments. The Texas Senate confirms all appointees. Commissioners meet six times each year and receive no pay for their service.

Laws Governing the Commission

The Commission is governed by Article V, Section 1-a, of the Texas Constitution, Chapter 33 of the Texas Government Code, the Texas Procedural Rules for the State Commission on Judicial Conduct, and the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct. As a part of the judicial branch with its own constitutional and statutory provisions regarding confidentiality of papers, records and proceedings, the Commission is not governed by the Texas Public Information Act, the Texas Open Meetings Act, or the Texas Administrative Procedures Act.

Defining Judicial Misconduct

Article V, Section 1-a(6)A of the Texas Constitution defines judicial misconduct as the “willful or persistent violation of rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas, incompetence in performing the duties of the office, willful violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct, or willful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of [the judge’s] duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice.”

Accordingly, a judge’s violation of the Texas Constitution, the Texas Penal Code, the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct, or rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas may constitute judicial misconduct. Specific examples of judicial misconduct include:

- failure to cooperate with the Commission’s investigation
- inappropriate or demeaning courtroom conduct, including yelling, use of profanity, demonstrated gender bias or the use of racial slurs
- improper ex parte communications with only one side in a case
- a public comment regarding a pending case
- presiding over a case in which the judge has an interest in the outcome, or in which any of the parties, attorneys or appointees are related to the judge within a prohibited degree of kinship
- out of court activities, including criminal conduct, engaging in improper financial or business dealings, improper fundraising activities, sexual harassment or official oppression

Sources of Complaints and Allegations

The Commission considers allegations from any source, including an individual, a news article, or information obtained during an investigation. There is no requirement that a person who files a complaint be the target or victim of the alleged misconduct, nor does the Commission require a complainant to have firsthand knowledge of the alleged misconduct. A complainant may request confidentiality, and the Commission may, in its discretion, initiate complaints based on anonymous submissions; however, anonymous submissions and requests for confidentiality may restrict the Commission’s ability to fully investigate the allegations. Furthermore, while the Commission strives to maintain confidentiality to those complainants who request it, the Commission may, in its discretion, reveal the identity of a confidential complainant when doing so serves the Commission’s interest in protecting the public by addressing misconduct.

Commission Limitations

The Commission does not have the power or authority of a court in this state, cannot change the decision or ruling of any court, nor can the Commission intervene in any pending case or proceeding. The Commission is also unable to remove a judge from a case. If the Commission determines that a judge has committed misconduct in an ongoing case, the Commission may only issue a sanction against the judge, or institute proceedings that would authorize the eventual removal of the judge from the bench. Nonetheless, it is the strong preference of the Commission not to make any finding that would impact or alter the outcome of an ongoing case.

Neither the Commission nor its staff can provide legal assistance or advice to a complainant, nor can it award damages or provide monetary or other relief to anyone.

Commission Investigations and Actions

Complaints are reviewed, analyzed and investigated by Commission staff. An investigation may include a review of court records and witness interviews. The Commission also endeavors to obtain a respondent judge's perspective before contemplating issuing any discipline against the judge. Once all the information is obtained through the investigation, the materials are presented to the Commission for deliberation. Typically, the Commission will either dismiss or sanction a judge at that point. Occasionally, as the facts and law warrant, the Commission may seek to suspend a judge, accept a voluntary resignation agreement from a judge in lieu of disciplinary action, or institute formal proceedings, as appropriate.

Commission Organization and Staff

In fiscal year 2024, the Commission had fourteen authorized staff positions¹ (Full Time Equivalents, or "FTEs"). For the year, Commission's staff included the Executive Director, the General Counsel, Chief Investigator, four staff attorneys, four investigators, a staff services officer, and two administrative assistants. All Commission staff members are full time State employees.

The Commission's legal staff, which consists of attorneys and investigators, is responsible for the evaluation and investigation of complaints. The investigators and legal assistants handle in-house and field investigations, screen all new cases and are also responsible for preparing legal documents and assisting the attorneys in the prosecution of disciplinary proceedings. The attorneys are responsible for investigating allegations of judicial misconduct or incapacity, presenting cases to the Commission, prosecuting disciplinary cases before Special Courts of Review, Special Masters, and Review Tribunals, responding to ethics calls, and speaking about judicial ethics at judicial educational and training seminars.

The Commission staff attorneys serve as Examiners, or trial counsel, during formal proceedings and on appeals from Commission actions. The Examiner is responsible for all aspects of preparing and presenting a case before the Commission, Special Master, Special Court of Review or Review Tribunal. The Commission may also employ Special Counsel, chosen from distinguished members of the bar, to assist staff in preparing and presenting these cases. Attorneys from the Office of the Attorney General have also represented the Commission as Special Counsel in formal proceedings.

The Executive Director heads the agency and reports directly to the Commission. The Executive Director is also the primary liaison between the Commission and the judiciary, legislators, other government officials, the public and the media.

Outreach and Education

In fiscal year 2024, the Executive Director and staff attorneys participated in 12 presentations at judicial training courses, bar conferences, outreach programs, and court staff workshops, describing the Commission and its operations and discussing various forms of judicial misconduct.

Ethics Calls

In fiscal year 2024, the Executive Director and staff attorneys responded to more than 300 inquiries from judges, judicial candidates, attorneys, legislators, the media and citizens regarding judicial ethics. Callers are informed that Commission staff cannot issue an opinion on behalf of the Commission, and that the Commission is not bound by any comments made during the conversation. As appropriate, a caller's question may be researched before the call is returned so that the specific canon, statute, rule or ethics opinion can be identified. When appropriate, staff will send the caller a Complaint Form (in English or Spanish) and other relevant material. In some instances, staff may refer callers to other resources or agencies better able to address their concerns.

Commission Website

The Commission's website also provides downloadable complaint forms in English and Spanish. The website offers: answers to frequently-asked questions regarding the Commission's composition, structure and jurisdiction; information about the judicial complaint process; a description of the range of decisions the Commission can make; explanations of the procedures for a judge or a complainant to appeal a decision by the Commission. Further, the website provides statistical information about the Commission and updated sanctions, resignations, suspensions, and Opinions issued by Special Courts of Review and Review Tribunals.

The Commission's governing provisions (the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct; Article V, Section 1-a of the Texas Constitution; Chapter 33 of the Texas Government Code; and the Texas Procedural Rules for the State Commission on Judicial Conduct) are all linked on the website as well.

Public Information

The availability of information and records maintained by the Commission is governed by Rule 12 of the Texas Rules of Judicial Administration, the Texas Constitution and the Texas Government Code. Commission records are not subject to public disclosure pursuant to the Public Information Act (formerly the Open Records Act) or the Freedom of Information Act.

Generally, Commission records are confidential, with the following exceptions:

- Constitution: Article V, Section 1-a(10) of the Texas Constitution provides that "All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, unless otherwise provided by law..."
- Government Code:
 - When the Commission issues a public sanction against a judge, Section 33.032 of the Texas Government Code provides that "the record of the informal appearance and the documents presented to the commission during the informal appearance that are not protected by attorney-client or work product privilege shall be public."
 - This Section also provides that suspension orders and voluntary agreements to resign in lieu of disciplinary proceedings are publicly available.
 - Section 33.032 also authorizes the release to the public of papers filed in a formal proceeding upon the filing of formal charges.
- Judicial Administration: Rule 12 of the Texas Rules of Judicial Administration provides for public access to certain records made or maintained by a judicial agency in its regular course of business, but not pertaining to its adjudicative function. Commission records relating to complaints, investigations, and its proceedings are not judicial records and are not subject to public disclosure pursuant to Rule 12.

When the Commission takes action on a complaint, whether dismissing it, issuing a private or public sanction, accepting a voluntary agreement to resign in lieu of disciplinary action, or instituting formal proceedings, the complainant is notified in writing. However, the Texas Government Code requires that the Commission omit the judge's name from the notice to the complainant unless a public sanction has been issued.

Additionally, the Constitution provides that in instances where issues concerning a judge or the Commission have been made public by sources other than the Commission, the Commission may make a public statement. In such a situation, the Commission determines whether the best interests of a judge or the public will be served by issuing the statement. The Commission issued one public statement in fiscal year 2024, PS-2024-1.

THE COMPLAINT PROCESS

Introduction

Each complaint stating an allegation of judicial misconduct is thoroughly reviewed, investigated and analyzed by the Commission staff. Complaints must be filed with the Commission in writing. Complaints sent by fax or through email are generally not accepted..

Complaint forms are available in English and Spanish from the following sources:

- Download from the Commission's website at <http://www.scjc.texas.gov/complaints/>
- Telephone requests to the Commission at (512) 463-5533 or toll free at (877) 228-5750

The Commission may also initiate a complaint based upon a media report, court documents, the internet or other sources. A complainant may request that the Commission keep his or her identity confidential. Additionally, the Commission accepts anonymous complaints.

After a complaint is filed, the Commission sends an acknowledgment letter to the complainant and staff begins its investigation and analysis of the allegations. Complainants may be asked to provide additional information or documents. As appropriate, staff conducts legal research and contacts witnesses. If the evidence obtained during the investigation calls for a response from the judge, an attorney will contact the judge to obtain a response to the allegations before presenting the matter to the Commission for consideration. When deemed appropriate by staff, an attorney or investigator may travel to the judge's county for further investigation and interviews.

When the investigation is completed, the case is presented to the Commission for its consideration. In some cases, the Commission may invite a judge, complainant, or other witnesses to appear and discuss the allegations. Based on the specific constitutional provisions, statutes and canons under which the Commission operates, it considers and votes on every complaint investigated by staff.

If the Commission chooses to issue a public sanction, an order describing the Commission's findings is prepared and distributed to the respondent judge, with a copy provided to the complainant. The order is then publicly disseminated to ensure public awareness. If the Commission votes to issue a private sanction, the appropriate order is prepared and tendered to the respondent judge, and the complainant is notified by letter of the Commission's action. Because the Commission is controlled by constitutional and statutory provisions that prohibit the release of information regarding investigation and resolution of a case, the only details released to the public are a summary of the operative facts of the matter posted on the Commission's website. However, in cases where a judge has voluntarily agreed to resign in lieu of disciplinary action, that agreement becomes public upon the Commission's acceptance of it, and the complainant is so notified.

Likewise, whenever the Commission suspends a judge after he or she has been indicted for a criminal offense, or charged with a misdemeanor involving official misconduct, the Commission releases the order of suspension and all records related to any post-suspension proceedings to the public.

Commission Decisions

Commission members review, deliberate and vote on each investigated complaint. This may result in a dismissal, a public or private order of additional education either alone or in combination with a public or private sanction, a public or private admonition, warning or reprimand, the acceptance of a voluntary agreement to resign from judicial office in lieu of disciplinary action, or formal proceedings for removal or retirement of the judge from the bench. If the judge appeals a decision of the Commission, the Texas Supreme Court randomly appoints three appellate judges to serve as a Special Court of Review. That Court's decision-making authority includes dismissal, affirmation of the Commission decision, imposition of a greater or lesser sanction, or the initiation of formal proceedings. The decision of the Special Court of Review is final and may not be appealed.

The Commission's decisions and actions in responding to allegations or complaints of judicial misconduct fall into one of the following categories:

1. Administrative Dismissal Report ("ADR")

A case is dismissed administratively when a complainant's writing fails to state an allegation which, if true, would constitute one or more of the following: (a) a willful or persistent violation of rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas, (b) incompetence in performing the duties of the office, (c) willful violation of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct, or (d) willful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice. Generally, the fact that a judge made a legal error while ruling on a motion, an objection, the admission or exclusion of evidence, or in the ultimate outcome of the case, does not constitute judicial misconduct unless there is evidence of bad faith, persistent legal error, or the legal error was egregious. Only an appellate court has the power to review and change a judge's decision in any case. In addition, gratuitous claims of misconduct unsupported by any facts or evidence will often be administratively dismissed. These cases are dismissed following an initial review without an investigation. In letters of dismissal sent to these complainants, the Commission provides an explanation for the decision and provides Complainants the opportunity to have the Commission reconsider the decision to dismiss the case before investigation. Staff may grant a complainant's ADR reconsideration request, but only the Commission has the authority to deny an ADR reconsideration request.

2. Dismissal

The Commission may dismiss a case after conducting a preliminary or full investigation of the allegations. Reasons for these dismissals include insufficient or no evidence of misconduct,² the judge demonstrated that he or she took appropriate actions to correct the conduct at issue, or the conduct, though problematic, did not rise to the level of sanctionable misconduct. In letters of dismissal sent to these complainants, the Commission provides an explanation for the dismissal, and describes the steps the complainant may take for the Commission to reconsider its decision. The Commission may also include cautionary advice to judges whose complaints have been dismissed after the judge has taken appropriate corrective action or in those cases where disciplinary action was deemed unwarranted given the facts and circumstances surrounding the alleged infraction.

² In contrast to cases dismissed administratively following an initial review, cases dismissed following a preliminary investigation in which it was determined that there was no evidence of judicial misconduct are classified as "frivolous" pursuant to Section 33.022 of the Texas Government Code.

3. Order of Additional Education

Legal and procedural issues are often complex, so it is not surprising that some judges take judicial action beyond their authority or contrary to procedural rules. In these situations, the Commission may conclude that the judge has demonstrated a deficiency in a particular area of the law, warranting an order of additional education. The Commission then coordinates the assignment of a mentor judge for one-on-one instruction with the judge, to be completed within a specified time on particular subjects. The mentor judge then reports to the Commission on the respondent judge's progress. The Commission may also order the judge to obtain education on other issues, such as anger management, gender or racial sensitivity, or sexual harassment. The Commission may issue an order of additional education alone or as part of a private or public sanction.

4. Private or Public Sanction

The Commission issues disciplinary sanctions when a preponderance of evidence supports a finding of judicial misconduct. The most severe disciplinary action available to the Commission is a public censure, which may be issued only after formal proceedings have been initiated by the Commission. If, after a public fact-finding trial, the Commission determines that the underlying allegations of the complaint are true but do not support a recommendation for removal from office, a censure may be issued as a public denunciation of the judge's conduct. Alternatively, the Commission may also issue a public reprimand, warning, or admonition following a formal proceeding.

The next most severe sanction is a public reprimand. A reprimand is the most severe sanction available to the Commission at the informal stage of disciplinary proceedings. A less severe sanction is a public warning, followed by a public admonition. A warning puts the judge on notice that the actions identified in the sanction are improper. An admonition is the lowest level of sanction.

A judge may appeal any sanction or public censure to a Special Court of Review. The process for appealing a public censure, reprimand, warning or admonition issued by the Commission after formal proceedings is different than that of a de novo review of a sanction issued after informal proceedings.

If a public sanction or censure is issued, all information considered by the Commission, including the judge's name, is made public. Public sanctions are issued not only to identify the specific conduct, but to educate judges that such conduct is inappropriate. This also ensures that the public is made aware of actions that violate the Code of Judicial Conduct. When the Commission elects to issue a private sanction, the judge's name and all information considered by the Commission remain confidential.

5. Suspension

The Commission has the power to suspend a judge from office, with or without pay, after the judge has been either indicted by a grand jury for a felony, or charged with a misdemeanor involving official misconduct. In these cases, the suspended judge has the right to a post-suspension hearing before one or more of the Commission members or the Executive Director, as designated by the Commission Chair.

In cases other than formal criminal charges, the Commission, upon the filing of a sworn complaint and after giving the judge notice and an opportunity to appear before the Commission, may recommend to the Supreme Court of Texas that a judge be suspended from office, with or without pay, for persistent violation of rules promulgated by the Supreme Court, incompetence in performing the duties of office, willful violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct, or willful and persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his or her duties, or that casts public discredit on the judiciary or the administration of justice.

6. Voluntary Agreement to Resign in Lieu of Discipline

In some cases, a judge subject to a Commission investigation may decide to resign in lieu of disciplinary action. In that event, the judge may tender to the Commission a voluntary agreement to resign from judicial office. Upon the Commission's acceptance, the agreement is made public and the judge vacates the bench. The agreement and any agreed statement of facts relating to it are admissible in subsequent proceedings before the Commission. While the agreement, including any documents referenced in the agreement, is public, any other records relating to the underlying case remain confidential and are only released to the public if the judge violates a term of the agreement.

7. Formal Proceedings

In certain circumstances, the Commission may decide that a complaint against a judge is so egregious that it should be handled and resolved through a formal proceeding. The Commission itself may conduct such a fact-finding hearing, or it may request the Supreme Court of Texas to appoint a Special Master (who must be a sitting or retired district or appellate judge) to hear the matter. Such proceedings are governed by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and the Texas Rules of Evidence to the extent practicable.

Although there is no right to a trial by jury in a formal proceeding, the judge is afforded certain other rights in a formal proceeding under the Texas Procedural Rules for the State Commission on Judicial Conduct, including the following:

- to be confronted by the judge's accusers
- to introduce evidence
- to be represented by counsel
- to examine and cross-examine witnesses
- to subpoena witnesses
- to obtain a copy of the reporter's record of testimony

If the formal proceeding has been conducted before a Special Master, he or she reports the findings of fact to the Commission. If either party files objections to the Master's Report, the Commission will hold a public hearing to consider the report of the Special Master and any objections. The Commission may adopt the Special Master's findings in whole or in part, modify the findings, totally reject them and enter its own findings, or order a hearing for the taking of additional evidence.

After adopting findings of fact, the Commission issues its conclusions of law. The Commission may dismiss the case, issue a public censure, reprimand, warning or admonition, or recommend removal or involuntary retirement to a seven-member Review Tribunal appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas. The Commission itself cannot permanently remove a judge; only the Review Tribunal can order a judge removed from the bench. The Review Tribunal may also enter an order prohibiting the judge from ever holding a judicial office again.

Although the Commission's recommendation for removal cannot be appealed, the judge may appeal the decision of the Review Tribunal to the Texas Supreme Court. A judge may also appeal the Commission's decision to issue a public censure or sanction to a Special Court of Review.³

³ In 2009, Section 33.034 of the Texas Government Code was amended to provide judges the right to appeal a public censure issued by the Commission following a formal proceeding. In 2013, Section 33.034 was amended further to provide the right to

Appellate Review of Commission Action

A judge may appeal the Commission's issuance of any public or private sanction, order of additional education, or public censure within thirty days of the date the Commission issues the sanction by filing a written notice with the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas and requesting the appointment of three appellate justices to act as a Special Court of Review.

Within fifteen days after the Special Court of Review is appointed, the Commission, through its Examiner, must file with the Clerk of the Texas Supreme Court a "charging document," which includes a copy of the sanction issued, as well as any additional charges to be considered in the de novo proceeding.⁴ These records become public upon filing with the Clerk, who is responsible for furnishing a copy to the petitioning judge and to each justice on the Special Court of Review.

In an appeal of a sanction issued following the informal proceeding stage, a trial de novo is scheduled within thirty days after the charging document is filed. The Special Court of Review considers the case from the beginning, as though it were standing in the place of the Commission (though the Special Court of Review is made aware of the Commission's decision). The Texas Rules of Civil Procedure apply, insofar as practicable, except that the judge is not entitled to a jury trial. All documents filed and evidence received in the review process are public.

The Special Court of Review may dismiss or affirm the Commission's decision, impose a greater or lesser sanction, or order the Commission to file formal proceedings against the subject judge for removal or involuntary retirement. The decision of the Special Court of Review is final and cannot be appealed.

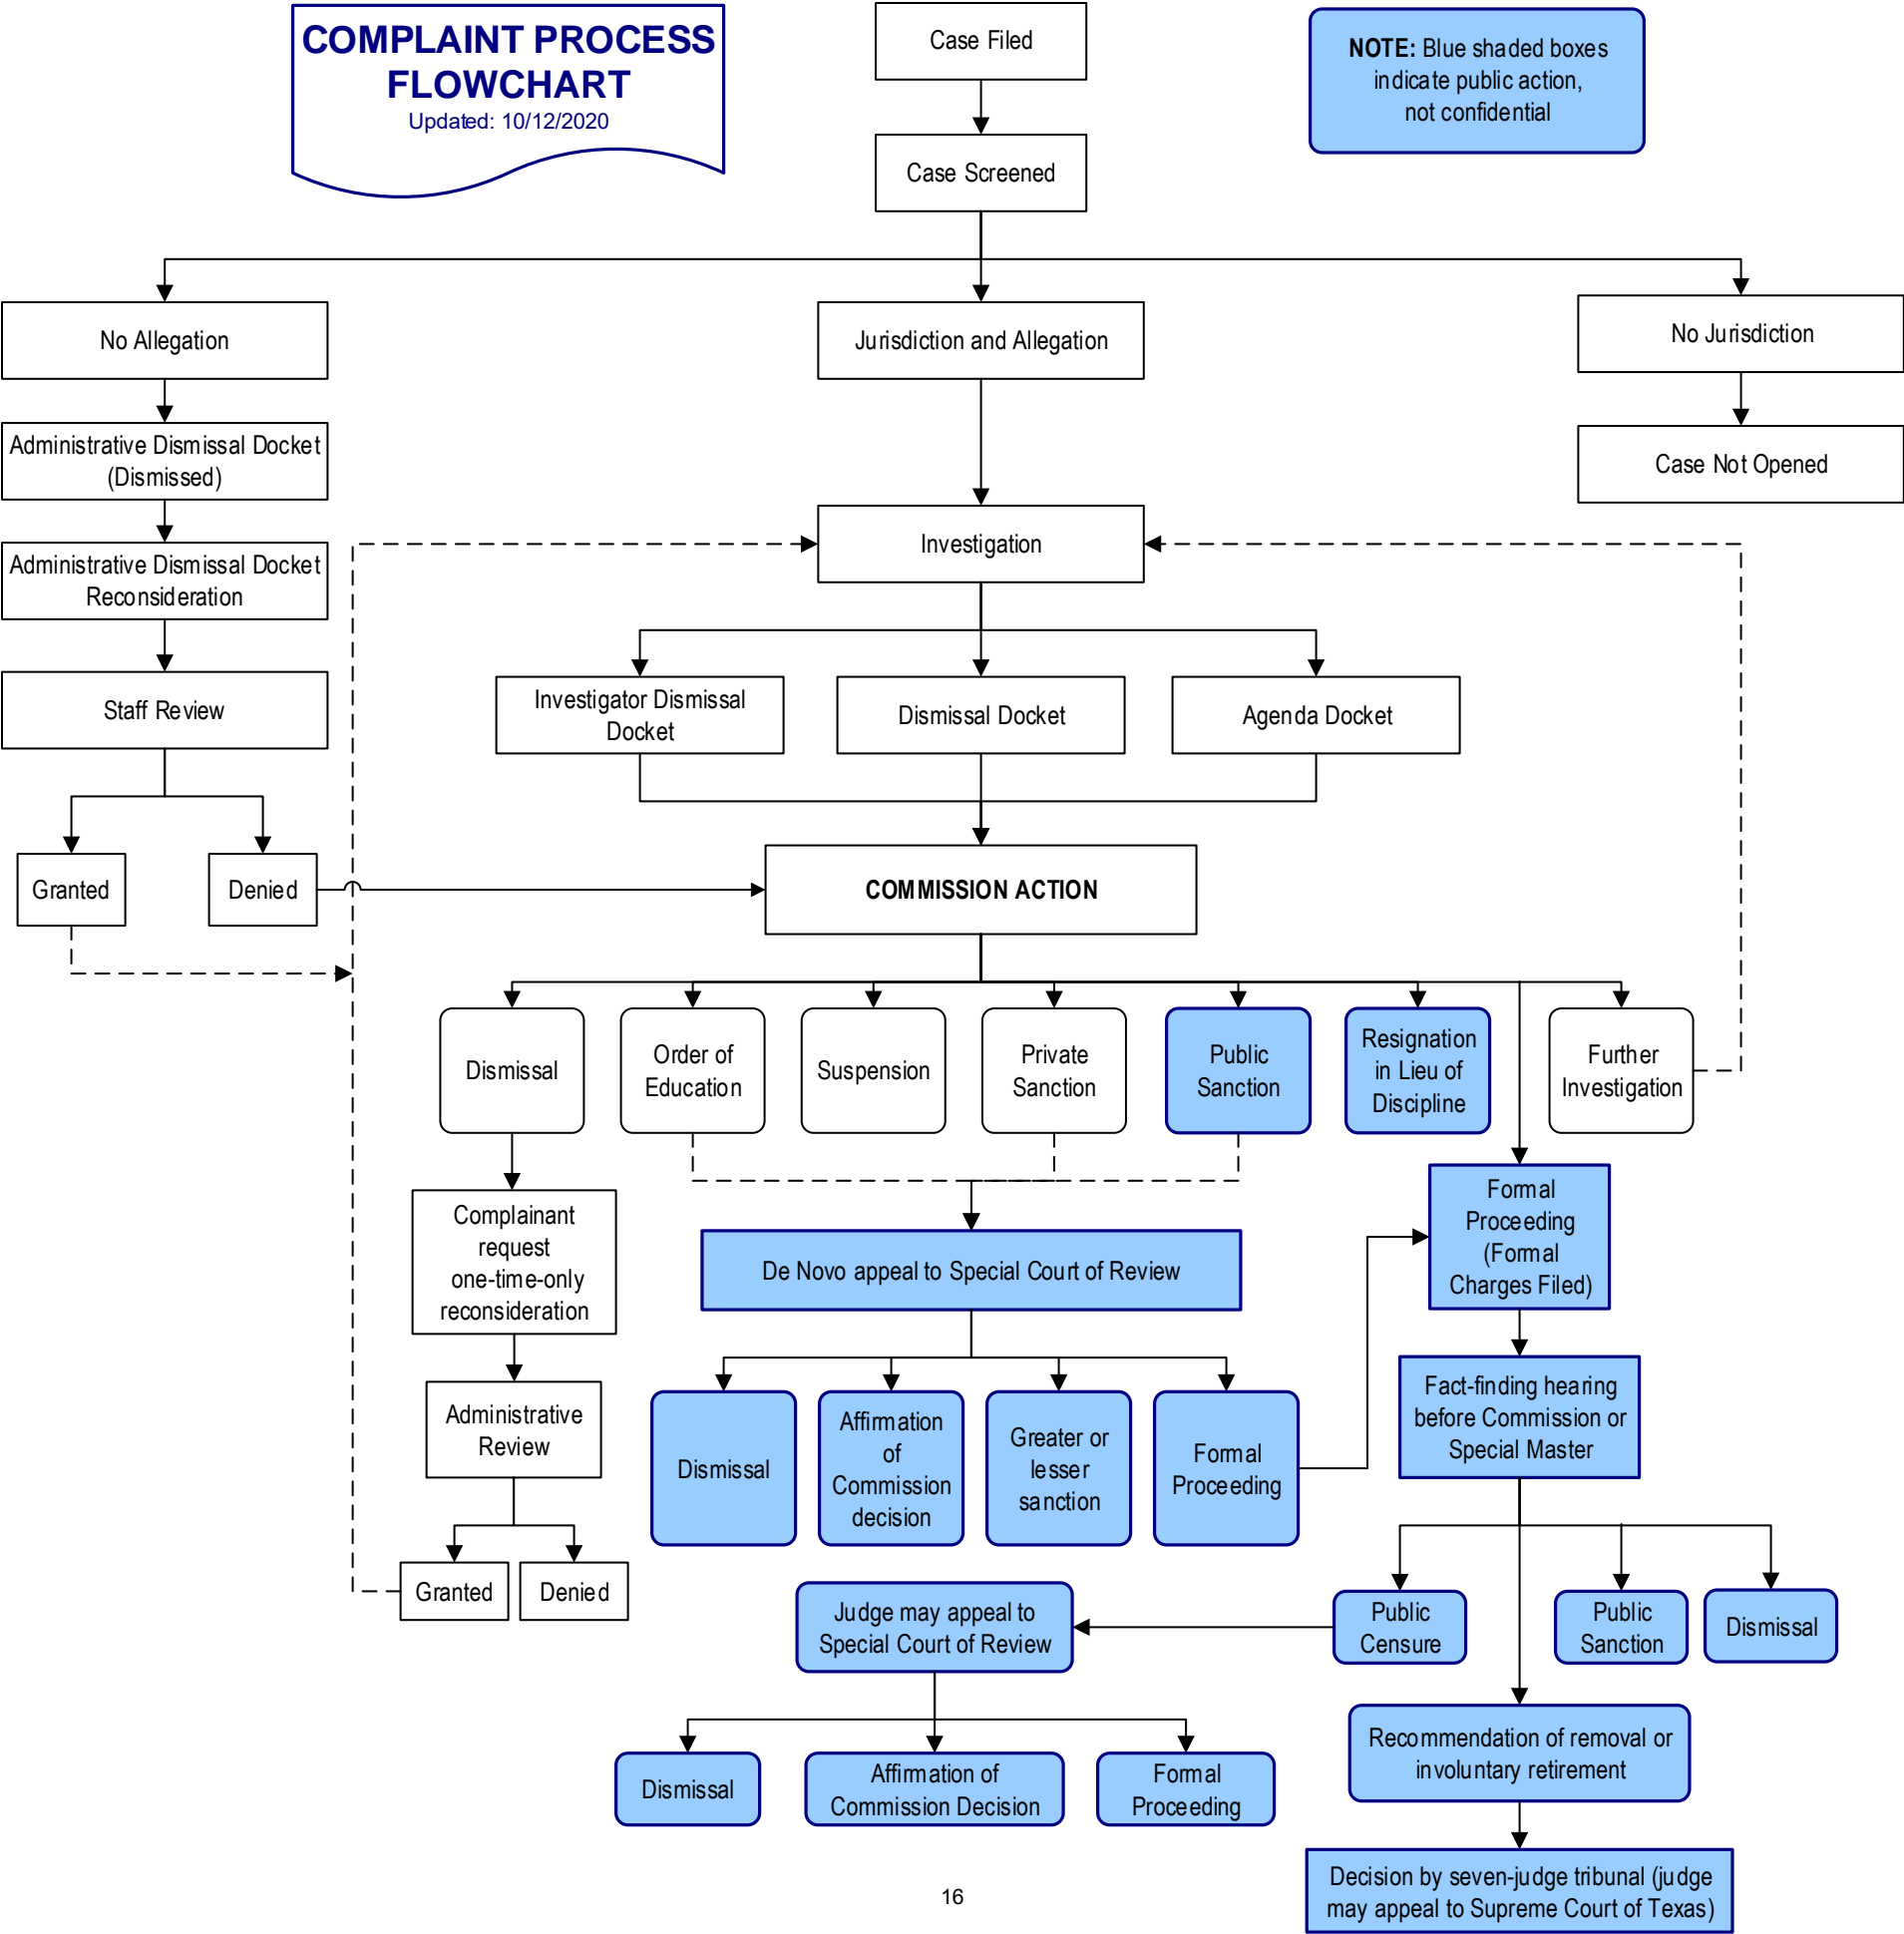

appeal a public reprimand, warning, or admonition issued after a formal proceeding. The Texas Supreme Court has been charged with the responsibility of drafting the procedural rules that will govern this process.

⁴ Sanctions issued in the informal proceeding stage may be reviewed in a trial de novo, in the same way that a case tried in a justice court may be appealed to a county court. By contrast, the appeal of a sanction or censure issued following a formal proceeding is a "review of the record of the proceedings that resulted in the sanction or censure and is based on the law and facts that were presented in the proceedings and any additional evidence that the Special Court of Review in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit." See Section 33.034(e)(1), Texas Government Code.

STATISTICAL ANALYSIS

An outline of the statistical activity for the Commission through the end of fiscal year 2024 is shown in Table 1 immediately following this section. In compliance with Section 33.005 of the Texas Government Code, the chart on Table 2 provides a breakdown of the dispositions of the 1,215 cases closed during fiscal year 2024, including the number of cases dismissed following preliminary investigation with a determination that the allegation was frivolous or unfounded, or because the facts alleged did not constitute judicial misconduct or the evidence did not support the allegation of judicial misconduct. Table 3 shows the types of allegations or canon violations that resulted in disciplinary action during fiscal year 2024. Graphic representations of the data are also presented in Figures 1 through 7 to further illustrate the activities of the Commission.

According to Office of Court Administration records, approximately 3,973 judges were under the jurisdiction of the Commission in fiscal year 2024, (less than a 2% increase from fiscal year 2023 – 3,880.)

In fiscal year 2024, the Commission acted in 49 cases involving Texas judges. The Commission disposed of 31 cases through public sanction, private sanction, orders of additional education or a combination of a sanction with an order of additional education. 1 case was resolved by a voluntary agreement to resign from judicial office. The Commission issued 3 orders of suspension in fiscal year 2024. Additionally, 7 cases were resolved by Special Court of Review orders.

Figures 5a and 5b show the total number of cases filed and disposed by the Commission between fiscal years 2020 and 2024. In fiscal year 2024, the Commission opened 1,135 cases – a 23% increase over the number of filings in fiscal year 2023. The Commission disposed of 1,215 cases in fiscal year 2024, representing a 4% increase in dispositions over fiscal year 2023. With 1,135 complaints received and 1,215 dispositions, the Commission's disposition rate for fiscal year 2024 was 107.05%.

A comparison of public discipline, private discipline and interim actions taken by the Commission in fiscal years 2020 through 2024 is shown in Figures 6a and 6b.

Of the 1,215 cases closed in fiscal year 2024, 25 were dismissed with language advising the judge about technical or de minimus violations, or violations of aspirational canons, and cautioning the judge to avoid similar conduct in the future. Approximately 60% of the cases closed in fiscal year 2024 alleged no judicial misconduct. The percentage (29%) of cases closed following a preliminary investigation decreased in 2024 relative to 2023 by 19%. Additionally, the percentage (11%) of full investigations requiring a response from the judge increased in fiscal year 2024 relative to 2023 by 4%. A comparison of initial, preliminary, and full investigations conducted by the Commission in fiscal years 2020 through 2024 is shown in Figures 7a and 7b.

During fiscal year 2024, the Commission referred 4 complaints against 1 judge to law enforcement. At the end of fiscal year 2024, the Commission had 136 open cases which were pending for a year or more, in which no tentative sanction had been issued, a 21% decrease from 2023 (165).

Finally, the Commission receives countless correspondence (i.e., mail, email) every year that does not pertain to the conduct of Texas judges. In fiscal year 2024, Commission Staff answered well over a thousand inquiries or complaints concerning individuals or entities that were outside of the Commission's jurisdiction, requesting legal advice/representation by the Commission or other assistance. Commission Staff was responsive to such correspondence, and whenever possible, provided those complainants additional written information and referred to other resources to help them resolve their concerns.

HB 4344 Reporting

During the 87th Legislative Session, the Texas Legislature passed HB 4344 amending Chapter 33 of the Texas Government Code which imposed a 270-day statutory timeframe to resolve complaints filed with the Commission. Effective September 1, 2022, Section 33.041 of the Texas Government Code requires that the Commission to prepare and submit to the Texas Legislature a report of: (i) the total number of complaints the Commission failed to finalize not later than the 270th day following the date the complaint was filed with the Commission and (ii) the total number of complaints that the Commission declined to further investigate because of a law enforcement agency investigation. During Fiscal Year 2024, the Commission failed to finalize one hundred twenty-seven (127) complaints within the 270 days imposed by statute. Of the one hundred twenty-seven cases, twenty-three (23) cases were delayed, in part, because the cases were previously on the Commission's Monitoring docket. (When the Commission votes to place a complaint on the Monitoring docket, the Commission pauses any investigation pending the outcome of a criminal investigation or relevant civil action.) Additionally, the Commission declined to further investigate three (3) complaints (against one judge), because of a law enforcement agency investigation, which culminated in the judge's disqualification after the judge was convicted of a felony. (Note: Most often, the Commission will investigate a complaint that was investigated by law enforcement, if the result of law enforcement's investigation did not result in a conviction disqualifying the judge from the bench.)

EXAMPLES OF IMPROPER JUDICIAL CONDUCT

The following are examples of judicial misconduct that resulted in disciplinary action by the Commission in fiscal year 2024. These are illustrative examples of misconduct, and do not represent every disciplinary action taken by the Commission in fiscal year 2024. The summaries below are listed in relation to specific violations of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct, the Texas Constitution, and other statutes or rules. They are listed in no particular order of severity of the disciplinary action imposed, and may involve more than one violation. The full text of every public sanction is published on the Commission website. A copy of any public record relating to any public sanction may also be requested by contacting the Commission.

These sanction summaries are provided with the intent to educate and inform the judiciary and the public regarding misconduct that the Commission found to warrant disciplinary action in fiscal year 2024. The reader should note that the summaries provide only general information and may omit mitigating or aggravating facts the Commission considered when determining the level of sanction to be imposed. Additionally, the reader should not make any inference from the fact situations provided in these summaries.

It is important to remember that the purpose of judicial discipline is not solely to punish a judge for engaging in misconduct, but to protect the public by making clear that the Commission does not condone judicial conduct that violates the public trust. However, the reader should note that not every transgression reported to the Commission will result in disciplinary action. The Commission has broad discretion to determine whether disciplinary action is appropriate, and the degree of discipline to be imposed. Factors such as the seriousness of the transgression, whether there is a pattern of improper activity, and the effect of the improper activity on others or on the judicial system, will inform and impact the Commission's decision in each case. It is the Commission's sincere desire that providing this information will protect and preserve the public's confidence in the competence, integrity, impartiality and independence of the judiciary and further assist the judiciary in establishing, maintaining and enforcing the highest standards of conduct – both on the bench and in their personal lives.

ARTICLE V, Section 1-a(6)A, Texas Constitution: A judge may be disciplined for willful or persistent violation of the rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas, willful violation of the code of Judicial Conduct, incompetence in performing the duties of office, or willful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice.

The judge failed to cooperate with the Commission's investigation when the judge failed to respond to the Commission's Letter of Inquiry and other Commission correspondence. The judge's failure in this respect constituted willful and persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of the judge's duties and cast public discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice, in violation of Section 33.001(b)(5) of the Texas Government Code. [Violation of 33.001(b)(5) and Article V, Section 1-a(6)A of the Texas Constitution] Public Reprimand of a Municipal Court Judge (12/20/23).

CANON 2A: A judge shall comply with the law and should act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

The judge failed to comply with the law when the judge operated a motor vehicle while intoxicated. [Violation of Canon 2A of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct and Article V, Section 1-a(6)A of the Texas Constitution.] Private Admonition of a County Court at Law Judge (10/23/23).

The judge failed to comply with the law and maintain professional competence in the law when the judge failed to timely execute the business of the court by failing to rule on motions in a timely matter, being ordered to rule on those pending motions through two writ of mandamus opinions by the Dallas Court of Appeals; and failing to cooperate with the Commission's investigation. [Violations of Canons 2A and 3B(2) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct, Section 33.001(b)(1) & (5) of the Texas Government Code and Article V, Section 1-a(6)A of the Texas Constitution.] Public Reprimand of a District Judge (2/7/24).

The judge failed to comply with the law and failed to maintain professional competence in the law when the judge failed to either grant a recusal motion or refer it to the regional presiding judge within three business days of filing, pursuant to Rule 18a(f)(1) of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. [Violation of Canons 2A and 3B(2) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Private Admonition of a Former District Judge (8/30/24).

CANON 2B: A judge shall not allow any relationship to influence judicial conduct or judgment. A judge shall not lend the prestige of judicial office to advance the private interests of the judge or others; nor shall a judge convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence the judge.

The judge lent the prestige of judicial office to advance the judge's private interest and the client during the judge's legal representation of the client in a small claims case. [Violation of Canon 2B of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Private Reprimand of a Justice of the Peace (12/20/23).

The judge lent the prestige of judicial office to advance the judge's private interests when he advertised his performance of wedding services using the regalia of his office, including images of himself in his judicial robes sitting on the bench beneath the State seal. [Violation of Canon 2B of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Public Admonition and Order of Additional Education of a Justice of the Peace (12/20/23).

The judge lent the prestige of judicial office to advance the private interest of another and conducted an extra-judicial activity in a manner that case reasonable doubt on the judge's capacity to at impartially when the judge engaged in the investigation of the judge's family members' school disciplinary review. [Violation of Canons 2B and 4A(1) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Private Warning of a Justice of the Peace (5/14/24).

CANON 3B(2): A judge should be faithful to the law and shall maintain professional competence in it. A judge shall not be swayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

The judge failed to comply with the law and maintain professional competence in the law when the judge failed to obtain the mandatory judicial education hours for the 2022-2023 Academic Year. [Violation of Canons 2A and 3B(2) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Private Reprimand and Order of Additional Education of a Municipal Court Judge (4/15/24).

The judge failed to comply with the law and maintain professional competence in the law when the judge failed to obtain the mandatory judicial education hours for the 2022-2023 Academic Year and failed to cooperate with the Commission's investigation. [Violations of Canons 2A and 3B(2), Section 33.001(b)(5) of the Texas Government Code and Article V, Section 1-a(6)A of the Texas Constitution.] Public Warning of a Municipal Court Judge (6/6/24).

CANON 3B(4): A judge shall be patient, dignified and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers and others with whom the judge deals in an official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of staff, court officials and others subject to the judge's direction and control.

The judge failed to be patient, dignified and courteous when he made sexual advances through text toward a court employee and failed failure to perform his judicial duties without bias or prejudice and/or manifested bias or prejudice towards the court employee through his words and conduct and his pattern of sexual harassment towards other women. The judge's failure in these respects constituted willful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties and cast public discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justices. [Violations of Canons 3B(4), 3B(5) and 3B(6) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct and Article V, Section 1-a(6)A of the Texas Constitution.] Public Reprimand and Order of Additional Education of a Justice of the Peace (10/12/23).

The judge failed to be patient, dignified and courteous towards a fellow judge and a family law attorney, in which the judge dealt with in an official capacity when the judge engaged in sexually harassing conduct towards them; and manifested bias or prejudice by word or conduct based upon sex when the judge made unwanted complimentary comments towards a fellow judge regarding her attire and appearance; texted the fellow judge late into the evening; referred to the fellow judge as "babe," "babes," "hon," "baby," and "beautiful"; told the fellow judge that he loves her; provided a female attorney, with his personal cell phone number; personally messaged a female attorney on Facebook and referred to his female staff members and female attorneys from the bench as "babe," "babes," "hon," "baby," and "beautiful." The judge's failure in these respects constituted willful and persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties and cast public discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice. [Violation of Canon 3B(4) and 3B(6) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct and Article V, Section 1-a(6)A of the Texas Constitution.] Public Warning and Order of Additional Education of a District Judge (6/21/24).

CANON 3B(5): A judge shall perform judicial duties without bias or prejudice.

The judge failed to perform the judge's duties without bias or prejudice, manifested bias and prejudice by words and conduct and failed to abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding which may come before the judge's court in a manner which suggests to a reasonable person the judge probable decision in the case when the judge instructed the jury to proceed to the jury room with an instruction to acquit the defendant since no evidence had been presented by the prosecution and made comments about the validity of the charges against the defendant. [Violations of 3B(5), 3B(6) and 3B(10) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Public Admonition of a District Court Judge (4/3/24).

CANON 3B(8): A judge shall accord to every person who has a legal interest in a proceeding, or that person’s lawyer, the right to be heard according to law. A judge shall not initiate, permit, or consider ex parte communications . . .

The judge failed to comply with the law and maintain competence in the law in the handling of an Application of Writ of Habeas Corpus and Motion for DNA testing in a criminal case, and failed to provide the defendant’s attorney the opportunity to be heard before the judge signed the order denying the Motion to DNA testing and the State’s Amended Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. [Violation of Canons 2A, 3B(2) and 3B(8) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Private Admonition of a Former District Court Judge (12/20/23).

CANON 4C(2): A judge shall not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal or civic organization...”

The judge made a social media post soliciting funds for the judge’s church. [Violation of Canon 4C(2) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Private Admonition and Order of Additional Education of a Justice of the Peace (8/21/24).

CANON 5(2): A judge shall not authorize the use of his or her name endorsing another candidate for any public office.

The judge authorized the public use of the judge’s name and judicial title to endorse her court clerk as her successor to the bench. [Violation of Canon 5(2) of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.] Public Admonition of a Justice of the Peace. (10/27/23).
